

Project Company presents

Cinderella

Artistic Direction by Louise Chalwell
Set Design by Lea Klein

John Curtin College of the Arts Project Company and Year 7 and 8 ballet students will present Cinderella. This Ballet is a wonderful vehicle to showcase the talents of students at the college and is sure to entertain audiences young and old.

Cinderella is suitable for Primary School and Secondary students and is a wonderful introduction to the theatre and dance. There will be beautiful costumes, magical settings and an introduction by the Artistic Director to the important aspects of staging and design. Please join us after the show for a meet and greet of the characters.

Cinderella will be performed by the college's Project Company which aims to inspire a new generation of young ballet enthusiasts.

We encourage you to bring along your students and join in with the magical adventures Cinderella
