

End of term!

We have made it halfway through the year! It has been great to see everyone's skills and abilities growing! Here are some example works to show their different styles used.

"Today Gabby Ava and Elyssa made some squishys with beads and balloons. We taught other kids on how to make them with pompoms and beads. We all made two. It was fun to have the chance to play/make squishys with your friends!"

It can be a little tricky fitting the pom-poms into the balloon and tying it up

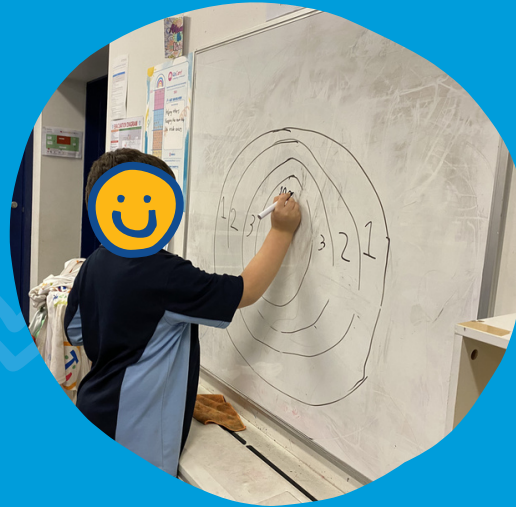

Well done to all who had a go!

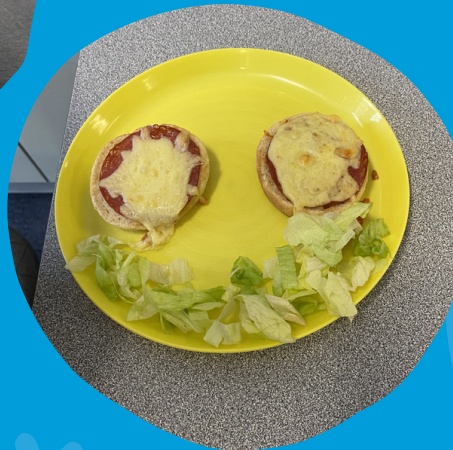

Whether it's LEGO or DUPLO, finishing a set from instructions is very satisfying!

The large whiteboard being used as target practice for paper aeroplanes!

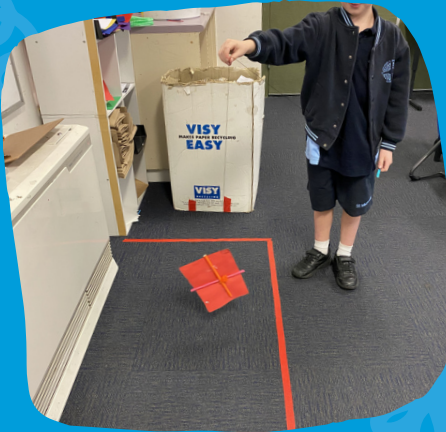

Pizza-Face!

Sometimes it's nice to just relax with a book!

This donated threading activity is great for fine-motor control!

Trying to fly a kite from the wind produced by the heater!

When painting is available, it is very popular!

Driving the bus!

World cup fever!

Blokus is a tricky, but popular, game. You must connect to your own color, but only by corners!
