

PANDA

By Jaxon H.

NAME OF ANIMAL

- A giant panda scientific name is Ailuropoda Melandleuca.

DESCRIPTION

- A panda's height is 60-90 cm tall.
- They're black and white.
- A Panda is 70-120 kg.
- The white parts of a panda's fur is to camouflage in snow areas.

HABITAT

- Giant pandas live at mountain ranges of China.
- They used to live on lowland but then farming chopped down trees.

DIET

- Giant panda's eat bamboo.

PREDATORS

- Adult panda's have no enemies but Cub's have enemies and those are jackals, snowleopards and yellow-throated martens.

YOUNG

- Female panda's ovulate only once a year, in the spring.
- Cub's stay with ther mother for 18 months.
- The mother raises their Cub's in the den.

LIFE SPAN

- They live for 15-20 years.
- In human care they live about 30 years.

STATUS

- Giant panda's used to be endangered but no longer.

SPECIAL ADAPTATIONS

- They have broad, flat molar teeth.