APRIL 2021

The Update

Happy Easter and Ramadan Mubarak Brimbank! Suddenly we are in April!

The Brimbank City Council Neighbourhood House Unit has been busy welcoming community members back into our spaces as hirers, participants in programs and as collaborators in a wide array of initiatives to support Brimbank people to grow and flourish.

We continue to focus on supporting and working with our communities that have been seriously and negatively impacted by the COVID pandemic, during the recovery phase. Please get in contact with your local neighbourhood house or community centre if you have suggestions or ideas for programming or initiatives that could support communities experiencing challenges.

We recently celebrated the rich cultural diversity of Brimbank with two events during Cultural Diversity Week (every week in Brimbank is Cultural Diversity week – right!). The picture below is of Wurundjeri Elder Uncle Ringo Terrick who welcomed us to Country at Westvale Community Centre with a beautiful smoking ceremony. Uncle Ringo spoke of his deep love of and connection to this Country and reminded us how lucky we are to live here on the traditional lands of the Kulin Nations.

Check out the wonderful range of no cost/low cost April school holiday programs we have across our centres. There are fun things for all ages and interests!

Term 2 sees the return of many of our regular programs and a whole lot of new opportunities for community members to connect and learn.

The Music of COVID

Brimbank City Council Neighbourhood House Unit's 'The House!' program was invited to write and produce songs around key COVID messages and the experiences of young people during the periods of lockdown, and into the recovery phase. This project was funded by Department of Premier and Cabinet as part of the Cultural and Linguistic Diverse Summer Engagement Project.

The project involved 13 young people representing Brimbank's richly, diverse community including young people who identify as being from Congo, Sierra Leone, Burundi, South Sudan, Syria, Samoa and South America. The songs demonstrated the remarkable resilience of young people to adapt, as well as their unique creativity. Furthermore, the project built on this group's collective strength, positioning them to enter 2021 with renewed positive energy and hope.

Participants from The Music of COVID Project

The songs will be launched on Brimbank's digital radio platform, Brimbank Live, in a show titled The Music of COVID at <https://www.livefm.online/brimbank-live>.

The Music of COVID will air across two episodes on 5 April and 12 April at 4pm. The shows will feature interviews with some of the young artists and with the first ever airplay of these unique audio time-capsules! The songs will also be shared on Brimbank City Council's social media channels and the launch show will be available for listening on demand at <https://www.livefm.online/brimbank-live>

Caring for Carers

Brimbank Neighbourhood Houses facilitates a Carers Support Group to deliver a fortnightly program to support young carers who take on caring responsibilities in the western region. The program's focus is to create a safe space for young carers to connect, share and learn.

Recently the carers participated in a workshop led by local resident and artist Ngardarb Riches. Aunty Ngardarb, a Bardi woman, delivered an art therapy workshop that fostered a connection to the carers' homelands and ancestors through painting and learning about Aboriginal art history.

In an upcoming workshop, Carers Victoria will provide information about the support available to carers. Oromo poet Saaro Umar will also lead a workshop that delves into the art of poetry writing for expression, reflection and creativity. On the school holidays the group will visit Werribee Zoo, the Botanical gardens, Bunjilaka Aboriginal Cultural Centre and the Melbourne Museum (as well as Charcoal Lane).

Some of the facilitators and carers showing Aunty Ngardarb's artwork.

To get involved phone Najib on 9249 4224 or email: delahaycc@brimbank.vic.gov.au.
