

home in the Asian Champions To us, some of the most important things in the Olympics is the Olympic Torch and the Olympic Rings. So in our artwork, we channeled those important elements. A big part of Australia is the original owners of the land, the Aborigines. A big part of their couture was to draw patterns based in their surroundings. Inside the rings, we included Aboriginal art to symbolise their mark on Australia today. Our background is cut out news paper articles from different sports. Also featured in the background, is a quote. We chose this quote because it is linked with the Olympic flame and torch and the power of athletes. Harry Heavey and Taylah Lobb Year 7A Mount Eliza Secondary Canadian Bay Road, Mount Eliza, Victoria, 3930 My partner, Harry Heavey and myself, Taylah Lobb decided to represent Olympians all around the world, on this poster particularly we painted the Olympian flame going throughout the whole page, an Olympic quote, the Olympic rings and finally a drawing of the world as the Olympics are a world wide event. We did not just want to represent Australia we wanted to represent the other cultures and places in the world... let win this thing aussies no.1 all the way.

We chose to create this picture of a person canoeing because we thought that it was a sport that best represents Australia. Because it's such a well know country for its beaches and hot weather we thought that it would be best suited to do a water sport for this activity. We used oil pastels because we wanted a good substance to blend different varieties of colours for the water.

We included a chant that is used to cheer on our awesome athletes! We drew no face since to us all the Australian athletes are fantastic but since we only drew one person we didn't want to have to choose between all our famous athletes. Because to us it takes a whole team to do brilliant things!

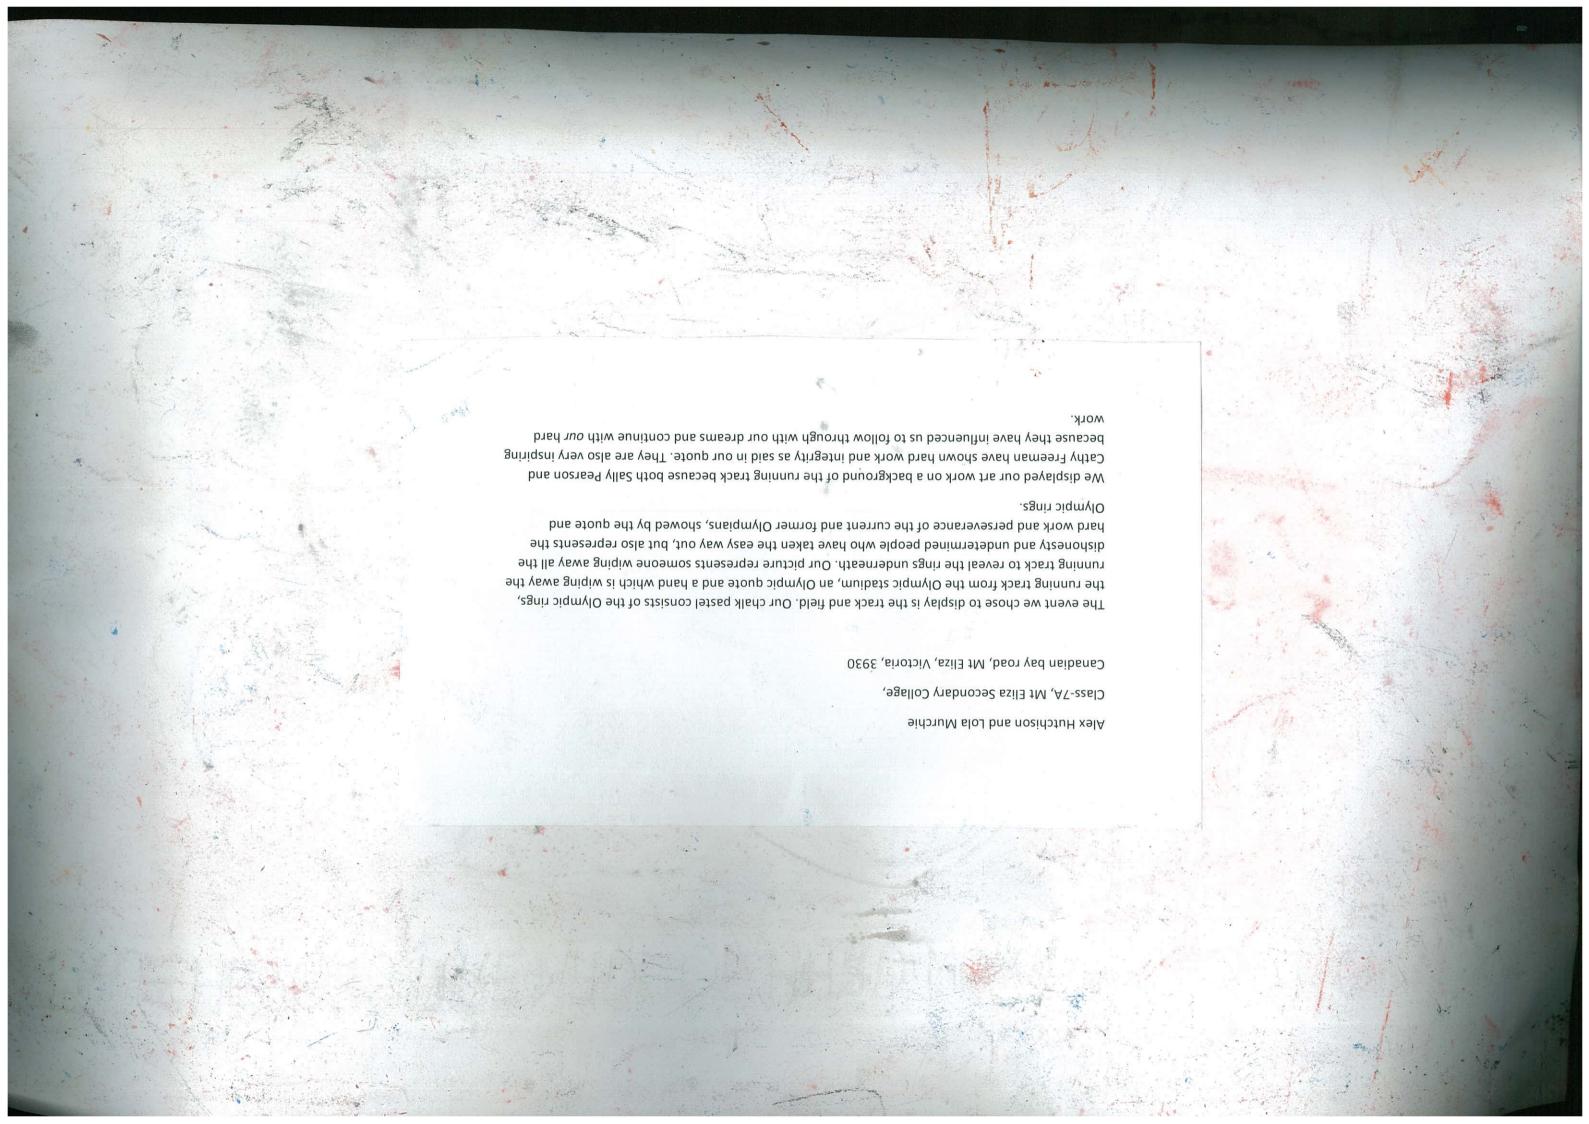

medal basketbell australian forlag 438 australian things On my poster I put Cathy freeman some Australia animals the Australian flag and medals. To - kangarross ennus koalas platypus me this represents Australia. I also put some facts about the medals on there which says about how many medals were one the summer Olympic. There is also some supporting writing saying Aussie, Aussie, Aussie. By Poppy Baldwin Year 7A Mount Eliza Secondary College Canadian Bay Road Mount Eliza Victoria 3930

On my poster I showed how many medals Australia has won in all the Summer Olympic Games. I also put the Australian flag to show what country this poster was for. Another thing on my poster is the outline of the medal, it says go for gold because that what Australians do, we go for gold.

We have chose multiple times in Australian Olympic history to draw. Then in the middle we have drawn four girls holding hands together to celebrate there victory. The meaning behind the drawing is with all our victories and failures or with anything as a country we stand together through anything and that's why I am and many people are proud to be Aussie!

CATHY FREEMAN

The reason we (Kaitlyn and May) choose Cathy freeman is because she is a big inspiration to us and she always try's her hardest and gives everything a shot and she gave us the dedication to do our best and always learn new things.

also what she under the fame and lights she also was a great person and we enjoyed every single part of it and she always keeps people's heads held high and she was a great and fun person to learn about and we didn't know much about her from before and that's why we wanted to challenge It was extremely fun because we got to learn about her childhood and her background to her life ourselves to learn something new and learn about somebody different

The reason we, Ella and Taylah, chose Cathy freeman is because she always try's her best and gives everything a go and never gives up. She inspired us to try our hardest and never give up. It was really fun because we got to learn about her. It was interesting to learn about someone different. We chose this design because it represented the Olympics well and it shows her as a child.

because it gave us a opportunity to learn about these three athletes and there personal life. These athletes have inspired us to keep doing what we love and have inspired us to work harder and The reason we chose to do this design is because we thought it represented the Olympics well and we close three of our favourite athlete from past and present Olympic names. We enjoyed it a lot believe in ourselves.
