

PARENT AND FAMILY SUPPORT

FOR LGBTIQ+ YOUNG PEOPLE
Online Forum with Mark Camilleri from Queerspace

This session will highlight a parenting model, barriers and enablers and the benefits of parental and family engagement for LGBTIQ+ young people.

- Who and What is Drummond Street
- LGBTIQ+ terms, statistics, demographics
- Unique issues
- Parental partner model, barriers, enablers (Drummond Street - Whole of family approach)
- Maximising LGBTIQ+ young person's potential through parent and family engagement
- Where to from here. Questions.

WEDNESDAY

16 SEPTEMBER 2020

6.30pm to 8.30pm

This session will explore the information and skills needed for parents and families to effectively support LGBTIQ+ young people. Increasing numbers of children and young people are identifying as queer, gender questioning, gender diverse or transgender. Parents and family members can often feel overwhelmed and under resourced.

BOOKINGS

www.Baseline.as.me/parents

PHONE

9404 8800

EMAIL

baseline@whittlesea.vic.gov.au

FREE