Prayer for Rain and those affected.

Eternal God, In wisdom and love you created our earth to sustain us and give us life.

We turn to you now in faith, hope and love, asking you to look with favour on our drought- stricken land, on our starving animals, on our failing crops.

Strengthen, sustain and give a new heart to our farmers and to all who are affected by drought; be with those who support them. In your loving providence, send an abundance of rain and restore our parched earth. Father of all compassion, hear our prayer through Jesus Christ you Son, in whom the promise of new life has dawned, and through the power of the Holy Spirit the Lord the giver of life: Renew your faithful people; Renew the face of the earth.

Our Lady of the Southern Cross, Mary help of Christians pray for us.

Christ the King

Responsorial Psalm: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is who comes in the name of the Lord. alleluia!

Gospel Reading: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The people stayed there before the cross-watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said, 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar, they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said, 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied, 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

Communion Antiphon: The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Next weekend's readings First Sunday of Advent Year A: Is 2: 1-5; Rom 13: 11-14; Mt 24: 37-44

Gospel Reflection: When the feast of Christ the King was first conceived by Pope Pius XI in 1925, its intention was to emphasise the majesty and power of Jesus Christ, King and ruler of the world. However, our understanding of 'king' as it can be applied to Jesus has changed significantly in the intervening years. Despite earthly notions of kingship and the role of the Messiah, Jesus completely rejected such expectations and assumed the role of servant to the poor and outcast. As we have seen throughout this year, the gospel of Luke depicts in great detail the emphasis and priority that Jesus gave to the lowly and marginalised. The theme that flows through the gospel is again captured in the account of the crucifixion.

At this most critical point, it is a criminal, crucified alongside Jesus, who responds in faith to Jesus and asks to join Jesus when he enters into his kingdom.
