

Dad's night with former Olympians

Come and learn some insights on what it takes to become an Olympian, and how these lessons can help us become better 'coaches' to our children. The Men of JTC are proud to have two Olympians share their experiences, and how this has shaped their fathering journey.

Stuart Reside

Stuart Reside was an Australian national champion, a two-time underage World Champion, a dual Olympian (Sydney 200 and Athens 2004) and a medallist at senior world championships and Olympics. Stuart is also a parent at the College to Olive, Hamish and Banjo.

Deane Pieters

Deane Pieters represented Australia in swimming from 1991-1993, competing at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. He is also a former world surf lifesaving champion (1990), and Australian surf lifesaving representative (1990, 1991 and 1996). Deane was a recipient of the Australian Sports Medal in 2000.
