

KINROSS WOLAROI SCHOOL - CAIRNS TRIP

4-DAY PROGRAM

ECOSYSTEMS & GLOBAL BIODIVERSITY: REEFS

CAIRNS 19 - 22 JUNE 2025

This trip is perfect opportunity to explore the Great Barrier Reef in a compact excursion. Learn more about biophysical interactions, biotic and abiotic factors, and human and natural impacts on the reef with fun, dynamic activities. Led by a knowledgeable marine specialist guides, your geography and biology focused trip explores the wonders of this World-Heritage site that hosts some of the planet's best biodiversity.

ITINERARY INCLUDES:

- ✓ 2 Great Barrier Reef days
- ✓ Marine Biologist instruction
- ✓ Geography & the Reef Presentation
- ✓ Access to marine lab at Reef pontoon
- ✓ Training on how to conduct GBR Marine Park Authority Rapid Monitoring Survey

HIGHLIGHTS:

Snorkel with sea turtles, visit a Turtle Rehab Centre to meet them up close & learn what threats are impacting them. Learn how to identify coral species & collect primary data on Great Barrier Reef coral bleaching. Learn from indigenous staff how they traditionally managed sea country. Snorkel with & learn from an expert marine biologist while participating in citizen science data collection