

Australian Volleyball Schools Cup - Gold Coast Tour

Tour Expression of Interest Form

The Australian Volleyball Schools Cup (AVSC) is the largest school-based sporting competition in Australia. The competition caters for over 150 schools, over 500 teams and more than 5000 athletes. For the first time, John XXIII College will be entering this competition and your son/daughter will have the opportunity to trial and potentially be selected for a team and represent the College.

The tour will be all inclusive with an approximate cost between $3,500 - $4000 (inclusive of flights, accommodation, transport, uniforms, hire of venues, outings, team registration fees and food). This cost is subject to change once teams have been selected and tour details finalised.
