

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

How will these gifts help you as you live your life right now? How would you like these gifts to help you?

Wisdom	The Spirit of Wisdom helps me to... not retaliate when my family annoys me and to also make sure to be calm when my little brother is being annoying. Like when my brother starts to make me annoyed I tell my mum and dad to tell him to stop if he won't listen.
Understanding	The Spirit of Understanding helps me to... Understand when people are sad or mad and take their anger and sadness on me. Like when my cousins lost their dog when we went to see them my cousin was very sad and started yelling for no reason so I calmed her down and she then said that she was sorry.
Counsel	The Spirit of Counsel helps me to... Helps me to understand when someone is talking to me and might be a bit sad so I can cheer them up. Like when I knew one of my friends was upset because they lost someone special to them and was trying to hide so I made sure they were ok.
Fortitude	The Spirit of Fortitude helps me to... Not be afraid to tell people I believe in the lord like when one of my friends came for a sleepover and I started praying and then they said what are you doing and I said I am praying and then they started praying with me.
Knowledge	The Spirit of Knowledge helps me to... Understand in church when they are talking about god, the disciples and the bible.
Piety	The Spirit of Piety helps me to... Helps me to understand when I am praying that god will give me confidence that god will answer my prayers and my example is that once I was praying I believed hard in god and was confident he would answer me and he did.

Fear of God

The Spirit of Fear of God helps me to...

Make sure I am good and remind me when I can be better like when I was being a bit rude. I realised that I was doing wrong and stopped and left to calm down.
