PARISH NEWS

Dear Parishioners, We congratulate Fr Denis O'Bryan who will be celebrating his 40th Anniversary of Ordination at St Thomas the Apostle Parish this weekend. We ask for God's continued blessing on him.

This week we celebrated the graduation Masses for the Clyde North and Cranbourne Campuses of St Peter's college. Please pray for the students as they start their VCE Examination in the coming days.

The Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of All Saints on Friday 1st November. This is a feast celebrated in honour of all the saints, known and unknown. It is not a holy day of obligation in Australia. However, there will be Mass at 9.30am and 7.30pm here in the church. Saturday 2nd November is All Souls Day. This is a holy day set aside to honour the dead. I encourage you to attend any of the two Masses at 9.30am, 12.00pm and pray for the souls of your loved ones. God bless you, Fr Joseph.

To cope with the needs of the parish we are going to live stream 9.00am Mass on Sunday and weekday Masses, for those parishioners who are home bound and are unable to attend Mass. This will begin on Sunday 1st December. As a result this will require permission from the parents of the all Altar Servers. All Altar Servers will be required to complete a new permission form. A new form will be emailed to the parents and copies will be available from the foyer from next week. God bless Fr Joseph

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, 27TH OCTOBER 2019

FIRST READING

Ecclesiasticus 35: 12-14.16-19

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable, nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgment. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. R.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R.

SECOND READING

2Timothy 4: 6-8.16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 18: 9-14

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else. 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION
