

READER SPOTLIGHT

Sienna M. Year 7

Do you prefer Print, audioBook or eBook?

- I prefer print because I like to be able to hold the book and move at my own pace, I find it is more fun to hold the pages and read it myself instead of focusing on somebody else reading.

Do you have any reading rituals?

- I quite enjoy reading at night-time before I go to bed. It is really nice and being tired does make it much easier to know when to stop reading.

Do you track your reading?

- I don't track my reading, but that does sound cool!

Recent Favorite Book?

- My recent favorite book is Risk by fleur Ferris.
- When a former police officer and paramedic writes a novel inspired by true stories of online predators and love gone wrong, you know you're getting the real deal. "

RISK

FLEUR
FERRIS

'Gripping, devastating and terrifying.
The scariest thing is that everything that happens in Risk is all too possible.'

REBECCA JAMES, AUTHOR OF BEAUTIFUL MALICE

What Book Would You Recommend?

- I would recommend the book Kate in Waiting by Becky Albertalli. It is my all time favorite book!

Sienna's review-

This is a great book by Becky Albertalli. With inclusion for different members of the LGBTQ+ community, readers may be able to find themselves on the page instead of their typical girl-loves-boy romance. This is a really well written book, and if you have the time you should definitely read it!!
