

Jellyfish

What is it?

Jellyfish are one of the oldest animals on earth! They are called invertebrates, which means they do not have bones.

What does it look like?

Jellyfish have soft bodies shaped like a bell. Jellyfish have long stinging tentacles. Some jellyfish are see-through; they also come in different colors.

What does it eat?

Jellyfish eat small fish and tiny plants called plankton. Jellyfish use their tentacles to catch food; some jellyfish sting their food before eating it.

Where does it live?

Jellyfish live in oceans all over the world. Like warm, shallow coastal waters and deep and cold oceans.

Interesting facts

Jellyfish have been on planet earth for more than 500 million years! Did you know some jellyfish can glow in the dark using something called bioluminescence! A group of jellyfish is called a bloom. Did you know jellyfish don't have a heart bones or brain!