Mount Carmel College Board

Parent Nominations are called for membership of the College Board. The Board fulfils a valuable role within our College community and we recognise the commitment and contribution of all Board members.

All nominations are most welcome, however, the Board needs a balance of perspectives on this most important advisory body. As such, applications with a financial advisory lens will be given preference. A strong commitment to the Catholic ethos of the College and its Vision Statement is required.

Membership involves attendance at approximately nine meetings for the year, currently scheduled Tuesday evenings. Willingness to contribute to committee work and/or attend other College forums is also encouraged of Board members.

To nominate:

- Complete the form below and attach a brief Curriculum Vitae
- Enclose in a sealed envelope, addressed to The Principal
- Return to the College no later than Friday 17 June 2022

All nominations will then be considered by the Board for recommendation and forwarded to the Association of Catholic Colleges Tasmania for approval.

Fiona Nolan
Principal

David Ronaldson
