

ABORIGINAL DISABILITY LIAISON OFFICER

Oonah is part of the Aboriginal Disability Liaison Officer Program. We can support you on your journey to applying for access to the NDIS (National Disability Insurance Scheme)

The NDIS is for people 0-65 with permanent and significant disability
Permanent means the disability will not go away
Significant means the disability affects how you live everyday

May fund reasonable and necessary supports that you need to live and enjoy your life

If you, your child, or someone you care for has a permanent and significant disability, the NDIS may be able to help

Oonah's ADLO Program

can help you by:

- Supporting you on your NDIS journey
- Gathering information, documentation and lodging an application
- Identifying NDIS access pathways for Community and identifying barriers that prevent Community from utilising the NDIS
- Identifying services that can support your daily living needs
- Liaising with NDIS and other organisations as an advocate on your behalf
- Providing support to identify your goals and prepare for planning meetings

Email:

intake@oonah.org.au
for intake forms and consultations

OONAH
ABORIGINAL HEALTH AND COMMUNITY SERVICES

OONAH
ABORIGINAL HEALTH AND COMMUNITY SERVICES

Earth Heart Spirit

A program for Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander women. With a strong focus on building health, culture, resilience and strengthening women through a range of holistic activities. We are aiming to support healthy lifestyle choices, working on healing physical, and spiritual self through a series of activities underpinned by Cultural strengthening as a pathway to healing.

Workshop themes include:

Health/Nutrition
Mindfulness
Healing
Connecting to Culture

For more information please call:
(03) 5962 2940

