change of preference guide

A guide to changing preferences and info days for students looking to study at university in 2023. Created by Study Work Grow Pty Ltd in 2022.

VERSION 1

From time to time dates and application procedures can change, so we recommend you double check all information directly with the organisation before you begin the application process. We have verified the information in this guide, but in some cases the information may differ from that provided on third party websites or printed material.

changing your preferences

If you've had a change of heart about what you want to study or where you'd like to go since you submitted your university application, it's not too late – you can still change your preferences.

You don't have to worry about changing preferences right away though, just remember that you have the option down the track. Note: 'cop' below stands for Change of Preference.

centre	main round offers released	cop main offer round cut-off	cop next offer round cut-off
UAC	22 dec	16 dec	5 jan
VTAC	21 dec	14 dec	22 dec
QTAC	22 dec	19 dec	4 jan
SATAC	12 jan	4 jan	-
TISC	23 dec	19 dec	15 jan
UTAS	mid dec	-	-

This information is correct at the time of publication (21/11/2022), but sometimes dates change for various reasons - so we recommend double-checking the cut offs for your chosen universities, courses and states.

Note: UTAS send out their main round of offers to Tasmanian students mid-December and to students in all other states/territories in January, so you may need to call and check with them when the last chance to change your preferences will be.

Don't stress if you don't get around to it; or if changing your preferences only becomes an issue after you've received your results. There will be a period of time where you can make the change and ensure you receive the best offer for you.

If you want to know more, heaps of unis hold information days and expos around change of preference time. It's a great chance to get in touch and ask any questions you might have about your application. If they're not holding any events, you can still contact them by phone, email or online.
