Tennis – Around the Grounds

A successful morning on the courts this week playing Iona College, with Marist taking out the 5Bs, 6As and 6Bs with a very narrow defeat in the 5As. Iona took out the 5As by the narrowest of margins (31 – 30). Congratulations to Tim Watts & Gabe Pua who took out their ‘reverse’ doubles, and to Gabe and Andrew Vetter, who both won their singles matches. Jack Lambley & Andrew were most unlucky to be defeated in their ‘straight’ doubles match, going down 4 games to 3.

The 5Bs had a successful morning with Matthew Campbell & Roy Power, and Ryan Heisel & Felix Law all taking out their ‘reverse’ doubles matches. Matthew & Ryan both had convincing wins also in their singles matches (6-1 and 6-0 respectively). In the end it was 4 sets to each College, with Marist taking out the 5Bs on a count-back, 30 games to 24.

The 6As won their matches convincingly, defeating Iona 8 – 0. Each of our players won both their doubles as well as their singles matches, with Oscar White, Sam Mapledoram & Felix Nolan winning 6 – 0 and Daniel Ortiz winning 6 – 2. Well played by all our 6As.

Likewise, the 6Bs won their matches 8 – 0, again with all our players winning both sets of their doubles as well as their singles matches. Of note, Finley Nicholson took out his singles 6 – 0 with Hamish Ansell, Lachlan handler & Hunter Guise all winning their matches by either 6 – 1 or 6 – 2. Thanks to Hunter Guise for filling in for us this weekend.

MCA tennis is in safe hands with our Primary teams.
