

HEALESVILLE SANCTUARY

On Monday I came to School at 8:30 with some warm clothes because it was freezing outside. Then my class and I lined up to get on the bus. It was a long bus ride. It took an hour and a half to get to Healesville Sanctuary and I kinda fell asleep. Then we walked in to Healesville Sanctuary and the first animal we saw was a koala it was asleep. Then we all sat down and had a little snack from the big trip on the bus. Then after the snack we walked over to the lesson. Then the two staff showed us the orange bellied parrot. Then they told us to get in groups of three and then they gave us white boards and white board markers to do in your own little house for the orange bellied parrot. Then we raced over to where we can make our designs with card board and connectors. Then the teacher took some picture of our designs but then we sadly had to tear the little house apart. After that we walked over to the BIRD SHOW!!! I was running over to the Bird Show and I was jumping up and down clapping my hands. When the bird show started I watch the graceful beautiful bird race over the heads of other people. After the Bird Show my class and I
