

GIRLS MAKE GAMES

Want to design, program, and publish your own video game?

What will you learn in a week?

- +Game Programming
- +Game Art
- +Game Design
- +Intro to VR
- +Practice Pitching to Industry Experts
- +Audio Engineering

Class Details:

Dates: January 15-20, 2018

Age Groups: 8-11 & 12-15

Hosted by the:

Faculty of Engineering, Monash University

Venue: Monash University

Clayton Campus

Wellington Road, Clayton VIC 3800

Excursion to local game studio/tech company

Tuition: AUD 500*

*Up to 100% tuition assistance available

WHAT IS GIRLS MAKE GAMES?

Girls Make Games is an international game development program designed to inspire middle and high school girls to learn game design, programming, and entrepreneurship.

To date, GMG camp alumni have published games on Xbox, Steam, and raised over $70,000 on Kickstarter.

Register Now at www.girlsmakegames.com