YEAR 11 STUDENTS

MEDICINE, DENTISTRY, ORAL HEALTH

If you will be in Year 12 next year and are planning to apply for medicine, dentistry and/or oral health to start in 2025, you may need to sit the UCAT ANZ (University Clinical Aptitude Test).

You will sit the test mid-year and selected universities will use your UCAT ANZ results as part of the selection process, in conjunction with your ATAR and Year 12 results, and in some cases an interview.

You will only have one chance to sit the UCAT ANZ in 2024 and you will be able to receive your results straight away.

Please go to www.ucat.edu.au for more information about the UCAT ANZ, to see if you have to sit the test and to access free preparation materials. Registrations will open on 5 March 2024.

UCAT Preparation Sessions

You have the choice to start preparing for the test early. There are several private companies that offer commercial preparation programs such as:

NIE, www.nie.edu.au
Med Entry, www.medentry.edu.au

It's important to note that private companies are not endorsed by the universities that use the UCAT.

BUILDING YOUR RESUME

To build your resume for future opportunities such as employment, traineeships, apprenticeships, scholarships, university accommodation, and leadership positions, it's crucial you take up career development opportunities during your high school years.

The following are activities you may consider:

- Secure casual or part time employment
- Play sport and volunteer for your club
- Participate in volunteering and community service activities
- Participate in fundraising activities.
- Participate in school and community leadership programs
- Join public speaking and debating clubs
- Get tutoring to improve your writing and oral presentation skills
- Join service clubs such as Scouts, Cadets, Guides, St Johns.
- Undertake work experience.
- Participate in competitions.
- Strive for academic awards.

Add to your resume to keep it up to date.

VICTORIA POLICE

INTERESTED IN A CAREER WITH THE VICTORIA POLICE?

Victoria Police has four different roles available for students who might be interested in pursuing a career in policing.

- Police Officer
- Protective Services Officer
- Police Custody Officer
- Victorian Public Servant

For a brief overview of each role and to watch recruitment videos, visit - <https://bit.ly/2N5vhUu>

Experience and attributes the Force is looking for

Not every 18-year-old will be ready to apply but those who are gathering life experience whilst they are in high school will be more competitive throughout the recruitment process. For example:

Employment in a customer service role

Provides exposure to people of all works of life and develops communication, teamwork, and conflict resolution skills.

Volunteer experience

Develops a sense of community-mindedness and communication skills. For example, working at the local surf lifesaving club or community centre.

Sporting club experience

Develops teamwork, communication, and leadership skills, not to mention the healthy level of fitness that is a requirement of the role.

Overseas travel

Provides exposure to other cultures, religions and languages and fosters a sense of independence and assertiveness.
