Hollywood, CA, March 2019 – 14-year-old Violeta Bozanic, winner at the World Championship of Performing Arts competition, has recorded new material with Grammy-winning producer Jeffrey Weber and Grammy-winning recording and mixing engineer Clark Germain at United Recording in Hollywood.

A Maltese-Australian who made it to the semi-finals of Australia's Got Talent when she was only 11 years old, Violeta's winning performance at the World Championship of Performing Arts competition earned her a $20,000 recording contract.

“As a vocalist, she has been winning talent contests for many years,” producer Jeffrey Weber explained. “I met her at a contest about a year ago, where I was a judge. She won that one, too. She and her parents decided it was time to get her career started and requested that I produce her first record. I asked Dapo Torimiro and Troy Laureta to co-write with her, bringing her lyrics to life.”

Dapo Tormiro has worked with artists such as John Legend, Stevie Wonder, and Justin Bieber. Troy Laureta is the former musical director for Ariana Grande and is currently music director for David Foster and JJ Lin.

Violeta recorded in United’s renowned Studio A with Dapo Torimiro, keyboards, arrangements, programming; Troy Laureta, keyboards, arrangements, programming; Tariqh Akoni, guitar; Michael Clark, associate producer, score supervisor, librarian; Clark Germain, recording/mixing engineer; David Leach, percussion; Rhonda Smith, bass; Teddy Campbell, drums; and Emily Rath, background vocals.

“When I first witnessed a performance by Violeta, the maturity of her voice and her songwriting skills made an indelible impression on me,” says Weber. “It’s very gratifying to be working here at United with such an incredible talent as we develop her many skills as a performer and recording artist.”

“It’s You” is to be released by Weberworks Entertainment Group in May 2019. See her winning performance at the Long Beach Performing Arts Center here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Os9PeSPDCJ4>
