News from Monash University

➤ Refreshed Common First Year in Engineering

The Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) common first year has gone through a refresh. New students commencing in 2022 will get to study newly designed first-year units underpinned by the framework of Sustainable Smart Cities. This enables students to become problem-solvers of the future while giving them a taste of the nine engineering specialisations on offer before deciding which to pursue from the second year.

➤ New Economics Major on offer in the Bachelor of Arts

Economics is now available in the Bachelor of Arts as a major and as free electives in any arts single degree.

Economics is taught by Monash Business School and there are many unit choices. There is no maths prerequisite – a great option for students wanting to study economics but who do not have Year 12 maths.

➤ Pathway to Physiotherapy

In 2021, Monash University introduced the Doctor of Physiotherapy, a three-year graduate-entry degree based at the Peninsula campus. This offers students with a passion for physiotherapy another pathway to a qualification, if unsuccessful in their application to the Bachelor of Physiotherapy (Honours).

A Monash Bachelor of Biomedical Science, Science, or Health Sciences degree is a great foundation for the Doctor of Physiotherapy. Students must also meet specific unit requirements.

➤ Languages at Monash

You don't need to have previously studied a language to study one at Monash.

- Absolute beginners are welcome, and students are assessed with a language entry level test to determine if they start at beginner, intermediate, proficient, or advanced level.
- Students will learn the language and be embedded in the culture thanks to the Global Immersion Guarantee, in-country language study tours and exchange.
- Being bilingual or multilingual opens up a whole new world and gives students an employability edge.
