

School Holiday Rugby Clinic

Monday 23rd and Tuesday 24th April 2018

St Pius X College will be hosting the annual School Holiday Rugby Clinic during the upcoming break. Students will receive specialist coaching on skills, defence and position specifics. Lunch will be included and buses will transport students from Chatswood to Oxford Falls. While this is not compulsory, all rugby players are encouraged to attend as it is an important part of the season preparation.

When: Monday 23rd and Tuesday 24th April (second week of school holidays).

Where: Oxford Falls playing fields.

All rugby players (and non-rugby players) are encouraged to attend as well as those students who would like to give rugby a go and learn some new skills with their friends.
