

SCHOOL COUNCIL BURSARIES for 2020

APPLICATION DETAILS

The purpose of a School Council Bursary is twofold. Firstly, to offer financial assistance to existing school families who support the values of John Wollaston Anglican Community School and secondly, to provide educational opportunities for appropriately qualified students who would not otherwise be able to remain at the School for financial or family reasons.

School Council will offer up to six (6) bursaries for 2020. Bursaries are available to current students entering Years 5 and 6, and Years 7 to 12 in 2020. School Council reserves the right to vary the number of bursaries at any time.

CONDITIONS

- Students must be attending the School at the time of application.
- Eligible students are able to apply each year. This includes students who have been the recipient of a School Council Bursary in a previous year.
- The successful recipient will receive one (1) term's tuition fees.
- The names of School Council Bursary recipients will be kept confidential.
