Responsorial Psalm: Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, ‘Sir, will there be only a few saved?’ He said to them, ‘Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed.

‘Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, “Lord, open to us” but he will answer, “I do not know where you come from.” Then you will find yourself saying, “We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets” but he will reply, “I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!”

‘Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

‘Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.’

Communion Antiphon: The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

Next weekend’s readings 22nd Sunday in Ord Time Yr C: Sirach 3: 17-20, 28-29; Heb 12: 19-19, 22-24; Lk 14: 1, 7-14

Gospel Focus – First and Last ‘Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.’

These words of Jesus carry with them a major thrust of his ministry in the gospel of Luke. Jesus reminds his audience that their status in society means nothing when it comes to their status in the kingdom of God. What will make people ‘first’ in the kingdom is their acceptance of Jesus’ message, their faith and their compassionate actions toward others. Jesus’ insistence on the inherent value of the ‘last’ in society must have been a constant irritant to those who considered themselves ‘first’.

Living the Gospel – Consequences: To be Christian is more than a name; more than a title.

If we put our hand up and claim the title of Christian, then there are consequences that flow from that. Those who are disillusioned by religion frequently name hypocrisy as the major reason for their disillusionment. Sometimes, that’s an easy out. We can’t all live like Jesus all of the time. However, we are called to take Jesus as our model of the Christian life. To call ourselves Christian is to try to be Christ-like in all our actions.
