

Luna and Ryan's Trip around the world

Written and Illustrated by Mairna Ely 9F

It was a warm summers evening and Ryan was stargazing, wondering what the world was really like beyond their kingdom. 'I wonder if the world has other little kingdoms, just like ours.' He thought to himself.

"Ryan. Are you out here?" Shouted his younger sister.

"I'm over here, Luna."

Luna walked over to her brother and sat down next to him.

"What are you doing?" She asked.

"I'm wondering what life is like outside of our kingdom."

"Why don't we go then?"

"Are you sure you're not too young, Luna?"

"Don't be ridiculous. Let's go on a trip around the world."

And that's exactly what they did.

The next night, Luna and Ryan met at the Unicorn stables to begin their trip around the world. They each picked the best unicorns from their kingdom and flew off beginning the start of their journey.

Their first stop was Greece.

Luna and Ryan walked for ages until they stumbled across a little coffee shop.

“Ooh. Ryan, check this out.”

Luna had found a left over dish in the kitchen.

“What is it Luna”

“Uh, Spana-span-spoona-spanakopita. Yeah that’s what it’s called. Let’s try some.”

And so they did. And they were in LOVE with it. It was super tasty and with the bread on the side. They were in heaven.

After hours, they finally left to go back to their unicorns.

Their next stop was Thailand. They arrived at the Emerald Buddha and made sure to pay their respects.

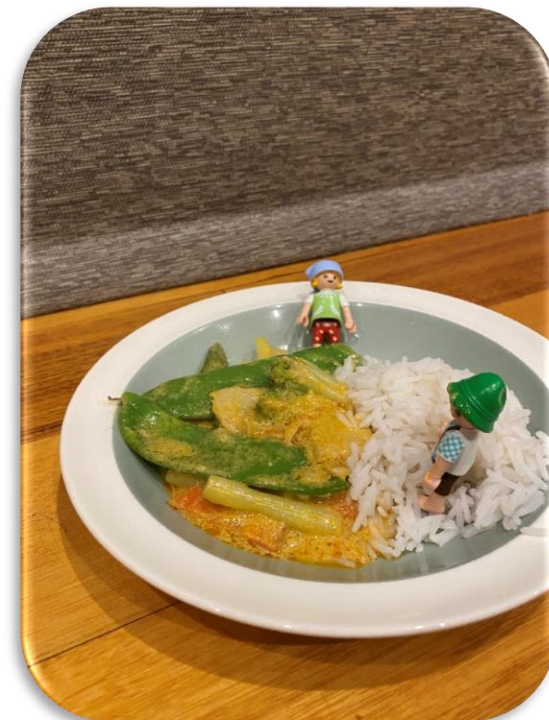

They parked their Unicorns at a secret Unicorn shelter and went for yet another walk and this time stumbled across a restaurant kitchen. Ryan noticed this amazing red looking thing and walked over to it.

“Hey Luna, check this out.”

“What is it?”

“I don’t know.” Says Ryan, as he takes a sip, “But whatever it is, it tastes like heaven.”

Ryan and Luna were so distracted that they didn’t realise that it was getting dark. So after hours and hours of consuming this delicious curry they finally turned around and went back to the Unicorns.

On their way to Italy they made a quick stop in the Jungle. They slid down waterfalls and sat in ponds. All of a sudden a GIANT fur beast came out and scared them. But they fought him off and went back to flying on their Unicorns.

After hours and hours of travel, Luna and Ryan finally arrived in Italy. They walked and found a delicious dish called Carbonara. They ate and ate again until they were full then went on and continued with their wonderful journey.

Their final stop was the middle east. It was so hot and dry they were sweating for ages. They finally came to a cart on the side of a road which was selling kebabs. They got one and sat down together and ate it.

"I'm glad I did this trip with you, Luna."

"Same. I wouldn't have wanted to do it with any other person than my older brother."

"Now let's head home."

"Ok."

So after days of travelling, Luna and Ryan arrived home and told their parents everything about the different cultures and food they had explored. Then they went straight to sleep because they were exhausted. It was the best trip that they ever did.

THE END
