FROM BUNURONG LAND

We respect, acknowledge, value, and celebrate the First Nations people, our heritage, cultural diversity, and multicultural strengths. We will provide an environment in which we aim to support every student to engage with truth, justice, and healing through reconciliation via the curriculum and listening to our elders and our family stories. An environment in which every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student has the opportunity to achieve their potential and feel strong and connected in their cultural identity.

AKT NOW

AKT Now (Aspiring Koori Teachers Now) is a program that supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are interested in pursuing a career in education by building confidence, skills and pathways into further study and employment in schools. As part of this work, we are excited to introduce Cooper, who has recently moved from his Cultural Coordinator role into this space, bringing with him strong relationships and cultural knowledge to support students and aspiring educators.

He will be working alongside Jaynaha and Zoe to help guide and encourage young people to succeed at school in a classroom based position.

Congratulations to the team!
