The Seven Sacraments

What is a sacrament?

A sacrament is a Christian religious ceremony that is designed to help Christians get closer to God. There are seven sacraments.

The Seven Sacraments

Baptism

This is when a person is welcomed into the Christian faith. The priest says, "I now baptise you in the name of the Father, the name of the Son and the name of the Holy Spirit." Then, water is sprinkled on the person's head. Usually, babies and young children are baptised but adults can be too.

The Seven Sacraments

Reconciliation

This is often known as 'confession' or sometimes as 'penance'. A person confesses their sins to the priest, who then says the words, "I absolve you of your sins in the Name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit."

The Seven Sacraments

Eucharist

This is when Christians remember the death of Jesus on the cross by taking bread and wine. The priest repeats the words of Jesus and says, "This is my body," and "This is the chalice of my blood."

The Seven Sacraments

Confirmation

Confirmation is when a Christian wants to develop their relationship with God. During this ceremony, Christians receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The priest or bishop will lay their hands on the person's head and pray for them. The sign on the cross is then made on the person's head using Holy Oil.
