

Acknowledgement of Country

We would like to acknowlege the traditional owners of the land on which we are performing this evening, the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, and pay our respect to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Thank you for being a supportive audience, and for celebrating this year with us!

Year Ten Performance Evening

Wednesday November 1st, 2023

Dramatic Structure

This performance explores the impact that social media has had on friendships. It will explore both the positive and negative elements of social media and consider how relationships of the future may evolve. We will consider friendships before social media, during the early days of social media, current social media trends and predictions as to how social media and friendships of the future develop.
