The Marist 6Bs came out firing against St Edmund's, cruising to a huge win to make it four straight victories. Our defence was on point all game, shutting down their offense and creating plenty of fast-break opportunities.

The boys played with great energy and teamwork, keeping the pressure up for 40 minutes. With this momentum, we're pumped to take on Villa this week and keep the streak alive.

Marist 44 def. Ambrose Treacy College 22

MVP: Tristan Nicoletti

A coach can ask nothing more of their team than to give their best, and this Marist side delivers exactly that each week. Against Ambrose Treacy College, the boys were rewarded for their hard work with a commanding 44–22 victory.

Playing fast and disciplined basketball, Marist executed their transition offence superbly, running their opponents off the court. It was Marist Basketball at its very best.

Nate Hodgetts set the tone with determination and grit, while Hunter Ward proved almost impossible to stop under the basket when allowed to square up. Anderson Wild distributed the ball with composure and scored freely when given space. MVP Tristan Nicoletti continues to shine, guiding the team with confidence and leadership.

With just two games remaining, the focus now turns to keeping the intensity high, working hard at training, and continuing to improve.

The boys turned up to training Tuesday afternoon and after the Laurie's game we worked on team play, defence and communication. They trained so well I made mention if they play the way they trained they will win. Come Friday they did just that!

A strong first half displaying this resulted in a nice lead. The third quarter saw ATC C side close the gap but our determination in defence and chasing the ball certainly frustrated the stronger players resulting in disharmony amongst the opposition. The lead narrowed to 6 points in second half and some concentrated and gutsy efforts from every boy saw Marist have a terrific win as a whole team.

Shout out to Maverick Gray who received an painful poke in the eye and still landed one free throw. Every boy deserves special mentions his however Nate Baldwin and Noah Packer had their best game of the season so far. Well done to the whole team.
