

Visual Art

Working with clay and mosaics

The junior students have made a wonderful start with their clay medals. We had a session using the clay and learning about the clay making tools. The students have made a plan and will start modelling this week. The senior and middle students have been working on their mosaics and they look fantastic. Thanks to Isla and Campbell for their help to change the display in the art room. The mosaic display looks amazing.

