Como Ward – Warrigal Road, Mentone – Letter of notification

Dear Resident,

Please be advised that linemarking works will occur to amend the existing road markings at the children's crossing on Warrigal Road outside of 110 Warrigal Road, Mentone. These works form part of the outcome of the conducted trial for the addition of rubber kerb islands on this children's crossing, based on the results of this trial the crossing and its markings will be shifted roughly a metre south.

These works will include the water blasting of existing markings to make way for the installation of new road markings at the crossing the following day. The existing rubber kerb islands will be removed prior to these works and then reinstated after these works are completed.

These works will take place on Monday the 1st of June 2026, works will occur for no more than an hour and are expected to start between 8pm-11pm.

We understand that these works may cause some disruption to residents and as such will be completed as early as possible in this timeframe.
