

Visual Art

BRAINSTORMING AND EXPECTATIONS

We have been working together to set our expectations for the visual art space, well done to all students for thinking about how we can create and maintain a safe, fun and respectful environment. All students have reflected on last year and thought about what they might like to create in 2024.

