

POOR MR FOX

Mr Fox is just another everyday fox, he shouldn't be punished for that... it's not like Mr Fox is given the right to shop or farm says Nicholas Mountjoy.

Poor Mr Fox thinks if he can't continue this way of life, he will die we can't do that. All living creatures were given three jobs; to thrive, survive and help each other, but right now all we're thriving or helping is our own fat, not what we were created for. "We're in this world and we have to earn it." Says Mr Jenkins. When Mr Fox borrows some food he doesn't steal the whole farm he takes two or three items. When surveyed, 73% of people say they think Mr Fox should be permitted to take what he needs. How would you feel if you died of starvation as soon as you were born. "It's just stupid. You wouldn't do that to your baby would you?" asks Miss Canine. This is just how the animal kingdom works. We shouldn't kill foxes for it. We believe we

Bought to you by the Barry prophet