➤ New Bachelor of Business Innovation and Enterprise

A degree in business innovation and enterprise will open you up to career opportunities that haven't been invented yet. Are you ready to get started on the journey?

This new degree is flexible and multi-disciplinary, with a strong focus on problem-solving and innovating, and students get to build their own degree by choosing specialisations or continuing to develop breadth across disciplines as the degree progresses, allowing students to carefully hone their own career pathway. This program proposes a new approach to the bachelor's degree that will allow students to develop:

1. their personal capabilities, including self-efficacy, global outlook and cultural awareness, flexibility, creativity, digital literacy, critical thinking, and the ability to lead and succeed in changing environments.
2. the ability to apply business principles to a range of different sectors or applications as intrapreneurs or entrepreneurs, cross-disciplinary experts, or specialists.
3. their degree into a customised, personalised program that helps students to carve out their future path and develop a professional identity that best suits their passions and interests.
4. a portfolio of project outcomes in areas such as global sustainability, cybersecurity planning, blockchain and law, digital transformation, managing globally or remotely, big data, AI and robotics in the workplace, social enterprise development and more. These projects will allow students to develop real-world outcomes through project-based learning, creating artefacts that can be used as a professional portfolio when seeking employment.
5. professional networks by working closely with industry partners, such as Adobe, Cisco, VOLLE, RIIPEN, RMIT Activator, Future Skills Social Institute and RMIT Europe.

The VCE entry requirements are: Units 3 and 4: a study score of at least 30 in English (EAL) or at least 25 in English other than EAL.

What is Land Surveying?

Interested in Geography, Maths, Science, IT and/or the outdoors? Looking for a job that won't tie you to a desk? Surveying is the measurement and mapping of our surrounding environment using mathematics and specialised technology. Land surveyors are involved with a diverse variety of projects from land subdivision to tunnel building and major construction. Importantly though, there is much more to surveying than taking measurements outdoors and then analysing them back in the office. Surveyors are often the first people on site during any construction process; they are the guardians of property law, and the creators of land titles. They are also the ones who can sign off on the position of new title boundaries. In all, surveyors are an integral part of the process in a wide variety of scenarios.

Note: Surveying subjects/courses are offered at RMIT and the University of Melbourne.*

Students who wish to find out what surveying is, what surveyors do, where to study, and what it takes, might like to browse A Life Without Limits.

Achieve Fest

Imagine the response if we stopped asking young people what they want to be when they grow up, and started asking what they value, what they enjoy, and what they're good at?

And what if we supported them through an engaging, individualised process that explores these questions while developing enterprise skills and exploring a range of potential career pathways through social action?

Following the success of our first Achieve Fest in June, we're delighted to offer a second Achieve Fest this September.

Achieve Fest is a free, two-day online immersion designed to explore identity, build networks, and develop the skills needed to thrive now and into the future.

Held on 9 & 10 September from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. AEST, Achieve Fest is open to:

- Young people aged 12 to 24 years
- Educators
