

How to respond to Online Bullying

Are you aware of all the dangers of online communication?
Is your child constantly connected to their mobile phone or computer?

Do you really know what they are doing on those devices?
Do you know how to help your child if they are getting Cyberbullied?

Schools are seeing an increase in cyberbullying and students are feeling the negative impacts of social media. To proactively address these issues, please join us for a free information session facilitated by Dean Lloyd, Greater Shepparton Youth Resource Officer with Victoria Police, supported by Kerrie Young a student welfare officer

Definition and characteristics of Cyberbullying
Different views of adults and young people
How parents can help prevent and respond to cyberbullying
How can you monitor your child's use of technology
How do you keep the lines of communication open with your child
Identifying and responding to incidents of cyberbullying
How do we work together to address these issues

A light supper will be served
Book your place here

This information session will be suitable for professionals, students and parents

