Undergraduate Studentships at CSIRO

Our undergraduate studentships offer students exciting opportunities for you to gain experience in a scientific environment.

CSIRO offers Undergraduate Vacation Studentships which run over the Australian summer holidays and offers high achieving and promising university students the opportunity to collaborate with leading CSIRO researchers in their world class facilities.

These prestigious studentships are highly sought after. Every year over 100 opportunities are offered to eligible undergraduate students in a number of disciplines.

Students have the chance to work on a real project in science, technology or a related field such as science communication. Placements are full time and typically begin in late November or early December and can be from 8 - 12 weeks in length.

Successful applicants are able to expand their skills and knowledge and there are often opportunities for formal and informal training and development during their time with CSIRO. Students are usually required to write a report on their work experience and will have the opportunity to present their vacation project to their peers at the end of the studentship.

Vacation students will be paid a stipend and, in some cases, may also receive a contribution towards their travel and accommodation costs.

To be considered for a Vacation Studentship, students:

- Will need to be enrolled at an Australian University;
- Will have completed not less than three years of a full-time (or equivalent) undergraduate degree at commencement of the studentship, however exceptional second year students may be considered;
- Will have a strong academic record (credit average or higher);
- Intend to pursue a research career in science or technology, or a career in a related discipline; and
- Will need to be available to undertake a full-time placement for 8-12 weeks over the university summer vacation period.

Senior students considering a career in the sciences or technology might like to keep this program in mind. The CSIRO also offers Undergraduate Traineeships that might be of interest too.

Richmond Institute of Sports Leadership

Students interested in a career in sport are invited to join us live at the Richmond Football Club to learn more about the Richmond Institute of Sports Leadership which is delivered in partnership with Swinburne University of Technology.

The Diploma of Sport/Diploma of Leadership and Management is delivered through Richmond Football Club's partnership with Swinburne University of Technology. This unique program is aimed at developing the next generation of leaders within the sports industry.

This dual diploma combines theory, practical and hands-on learning with a focus on real world skills and knowledge. Students will learn how to enhance athlete performance, manage people and teams, and become a leader.

As a part of the course, students are encouraged to complete 100 hours of industry work placement, and this work placement must be relevant to the content of the course. In partnership with Swinburne and the Richmond Football Club you will:

- Acquire skills and knowledge from industry experts, including insight from one of the most successful sporting clubs in Australia.
- Complete nationally recognised qualifications with a world-class university.
- Experience unrivalled professional development, industry placement and employment opportunities.
- Focus on personal development, including improving yourself and your connection with others.

What can I do with an Arts Degree?

There is often the debate about the value of an Arts Degree and what kind of role an Arts Graduate could find in industry. The list of roles is quite varied, and includes -

- Teaching & educational administration
- International aid and trade agencies
- Arts production and management
- Public service and social welfare agencies
- General management and administration (local and global)
- Communications industry, publishing, media and public relations
- Tourism and hospitality

One of the very important things for students to note, is that an Arts' student learns skills that are very transferrable in industry. These include communication skills, critical thinking and reading skills, analytical skills, and research skills – browse Career FAQs - What to do with your Arts Degree to learn more. The University of Melbourne also has some useful information at this link - Bachelor of Arts : Where will this take me?

A New Pathway to Medicine at UniSQ

If you're looking to become a Doctor, you know you'll need to study one of the few (and competitive) degrees out there that lead to your chosen career. UniSQ are now making it easier for regional students to realise their dreams, launching the Bachelor of Biomedical Sciences (Medicine Pathway).

Upon successful completion of the degree within three years and with a minimum Grade Point Average of 5.0, students will gain direct entry into the University of Queensland's (UQ) MD, delivered by the UQ Rural Clinical School, Toowoomba.

The Bachelor of Biomedical Sciences \(Medicine Pathway\) is part of the Darling Downs South West Medical Pathway, a collaboration between University of Southern Queensland, The University of Queensland, Darling Downs Health and South West Hospital and Health Service. The goal of the collaboration is to provide end to end medical training in the Darling Downs and South West regions to enhance our rural, regional and remote medical workforce.

Regional and rural students are encouraged to apply and may be eligible for ATAR adjustments if they reside in a rural area in southern Queensland and northern New South Wales, however all students are eligible to apply for this course.

Spotlight on Studying Medicine at UQ

The University of Queensland's School of Medicine is committed to delivering a world-class medical education, with the best outcomes for our students.

UQ offers the Doctor of Medicine program which has two options for entry:

Option 1 – Provisional Entry

- Student must be completing year 12 in the year they apply
- have an adjusted ATAR 95 (or equivalent), and
- Queensland Year 12 (or equivalent) English, and
- a competitive University Clinical Aptitude Test for Australia and New Zealand \(UCAT ANZ\) aggregate score from the year you apply, and
- attendance at a multiple mini-interview \(MMI\)

Option 2 – Graduate Entry

- a bachelor's degree (or equivalent) (known as a key degree), and
- a grade point average (GPA) of 5.0 on a 7-point scale in their key degree, and
- a minimum score of 50 in each section of the Graduate Medical School Admissions Test (GAMSAT) or for international applicants 504 in the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT), and attendance at a multiple mini-interview \(MMI\), and successful completion of the required MD subject prerequisite courses ***

New Climate Change Major

Study climate change as your major. It will equip you with the skills and knowledge to respond to the climate crisis and drive positive change.

Make an impact through La Trobe's climate change major.

As the first of its kind in Australia*, students can study climate change as a major in a wide range of discipline areas including science, global studies, health sciences and more.

Students can study the climate change major entirely online, or as an open access major in a wide range of undergraduate degrees, including:

- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Science
- Bachelor of Biological Sciences
- Bachelor of Business
- Bachelor of Global Studies
- Bachelor of Health Sciences

* The climate change major at La Trobe University is the first of its kind in Australia as it is non-cognate and inter-disciplinary, and it provides the unique opportunity for students to study the global challenge of anthropogenic climate change from a wide range of disciplines including law, economics, public health and archaeology.
