Tennis – Around the Grounds

A successful morning of tennis against Padua College in Year 5&6 tennis, with Marist winning the 5B, 6A and 6B matches. The boys are playing beautiful tennis and improving week upon week.

The longest match of the day goes to Dan Hart (playing for the 6B team who took his singles match right to absolute end and after a neck-and-neck tie-break won 7 – 6. In the 5A's congratulations to Tim Watts & Andrew Vetter who fought to win their doubles match, and to Gabriel Pua who won his singles match convincingly. In the 5B matches players of the day go to Matt Campbell & Roy Power who won both their doubles matches, with Matt going on to win his singles match as well. Our 6As had a very successful morning winning 8 sets to nil – all players (Oscar White, Euan Davidson, Felix Nolan & Daniel Ortiz) convincingly won each match they played. The 6B's likewise experienced success, only dropping one set in the morning, with Hamish Ansell, Finley Nicholson & Lachlan Chandler taking out their respective singles matches 6 – 0.

Congratulations to our boys on their team spirit and fine representation of Marist on and off the court.
