

THE SINGING CLASSROOM

Join our FREE Singing Classroom workshop for primary and early years teachers

Musical Futures has teamed up with aMuse to deliver singing workshops especially designed for teachers working in primary and early years education.

The Singing Classroom workshops:

- ✓ Introduce the purpose of singing in the classroom and why its important
- ✓ Provide skills and resources for generalist teachers to enable more singing to take place in schools
- ✓ Build confidence amongst generalist primary teachers to sing with their students
- ✓ Provide techniques to lift the profile of singing in schools
- ✓ Demonstrate ways of integrating singing into dedicated music sessions as well as into the general curriculum - especially links to literacy and numeracy
- ✓ Learn to teach a song – chants/rounds/part-songs/action songs
- ✓ Extension ideas - integrating composition and percussion including body percussion, songwriting and creating a rap
- ✓ FREE downloadable materials and resources including sample songs, rounds, tools for creating a group composition activities, writing a rap and more
