2 PLACE ORDER

Fill in all your order details and add your individual order to the cart. Please ensure the Student full name entered is that of the person receiving the garment. Proceed to check out to confirm and pay for your order.

Ensure the spelling and upper/lower case for your Custom Name/s is correct. This will appear on your garment exactly as it's typed. You have access to log in and edit your order details until the group deadline date.
As your garment is custom-made to order, we do not offer exchanges, refunds or alterations of any kind. We cannot accept orders once the deadline date has passed and the order is closed.

3 LOG IN

Log in or create a new account using your email address and password of your choice.

4 PAYMENT

Complete the final check and payment for your order.

FAQS

When and where will my order be delivered?

The bulk order will be delivered to one address chosen by the group order manager. Deliveries are not made to individual addresses. Production on garments will not begin until the order manager submits the group order. Delivery is approximately 13 weeks from when the order manager submits the group order. Based on the dates set for this order, delivery is expected mid February 2027.

What size should I order?

Reform offers adult unisex sizing, which is different from conventional sizing. Please refer to the sizing guide when selecting a size during ordering - it is important to ensure the instructions are followed carefully as we don't offer refunds/exchanges if the incorrect size is ordered.

Do I need to create an account to order?

Yes, you will need to create an account so you can manage your order until the group deadline. An order confirmation and payment receipt will be sent to the email address used to create the account. Please ensure you keep this until after you have received the item.

How do I pay?

Payments are made via credit/debit card on checkout.

Can I make changes to my order?

You can edit your order before the group deadline by logging into your account and clicking "orders" at the top of the page. Select the order you wish to make changes to, make the relevant changes, and save. If you have already ordered, you can click "edit" in your order confirmation email - this takes you back into the order. Make your changes and save.
Changes cannot be made after the group deadline.

When do I have to order by?

The group deadline set by your order manager will appear at the top of the ordering page. You have until 11:59 pm AEDT on 13 November 2026 to place your order. We cannot accept orders once the deadline date has passed and the order is closed.

Why did I receive an email stating that my Custom Name has been changed?

Custom names are approved by your order manager. If you received an email notification about this and you believe the update is incorrect, please contact your order manager directly to discuss.

My name is too long - can I still have it on my garment?

Please visit reformclothing.com/contact-us, quote order ID 12269262555 for Wyndham College, and tell us which design to order, the size, and the name spelled exactly as you want it (case sensitive). We will confirm what's possible.

What characters are supported in the custom name field?

Our custom names can support any character found on a standard keyboard. All custom names are case sensitive. Emojis are not available for any products in this order.

Can I cancel my order?

Please call us on 1300 885 927 or visit reformclothing.com/contact-us for any cancellations - they cannot be processed after the group deadline.

I've missed the deadline - how can I place an order?

Please speak to your order manager about a deadline extension or opening an additional order (minimum order quantities and surcharges may apply). We cannot accept orders once the deadline date has passed and the order is closed.
