A Creed, is a 'Profession of faith', a statement of commitment and of what is believed.

Our word, 'Creed' comes from the Latin, "Credo" meaning "I believe". The Apostles Creed and Nicene Creed are shared by many Christian Churches.

Founded in Scripture, these creeds developed through more than 400 years of Christian prayer and reflection. The Creed doesn't try to say it all, nor explain nor prove beliefs

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Most Holy Trinity Year A

31st May 2026

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father,
and the Only Begotten Son of God,
and also the Holy Spirit,
for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading Exodus 34:4-6. 8-9

A reading from the book of Exodus

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Glory and praise for ever!

1. You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.
Blest your glorious holy name. (R.)
2. You are blest in the temple of your glory.
You are blest on the throne of your kingdom. (R.)
3. You are blest who gaze into the depths.
You are blest in the firmament of heaven. (R.)

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation

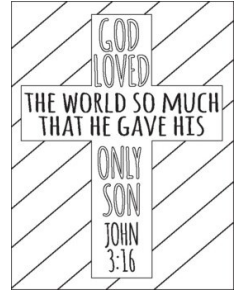

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost
but may have eternal life.
For God sent his Son into the world
not to condemn the world,
but so that through him the world might be saved.
No one who believes in him will be condemned;
but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,
because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God,
God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son,
the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Biggest Morning Tea

Sunday 31st May

After both morning masses

The CWL ladies will hold the Biggest Morning Tea, which raises funds for Cancer Research, this Sunday 31st May in the hall. Please come along for a tea/coffee and a chat.

At the same time they will set up their Fundraising Stall which was rained out recently. All the rescued items will be on display for purchase to assist with the charitable funds needed to support those in need.

Donations can be left in the basket in St. Peter's Church foyer or at the Parish office.

Thank you in advance for any support you are able to provide.

For anyone wishing to support us financially there are envelopes on the table in the Church and in the Church foyer.

We also now have a link that allows you to donate directly to the Epping Conference. <https://fundraising.svdv-vic.org.au/eppingconference> or for those who prefer:

All donations of $2 or more are tax deductible and receipts are supplied. Donations can be with names or anonymously.

ONE IN CHRIST UNITED IN Mission
100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This year marks 100 years of World Mission Day, a time in which the global Church celebrates God's mission through prayer and generosity. Today, that mission continues in places like Malawi, where communities are rebuilding after devastating floods and families are striving to create a future for their children.

In the coming weeks, we will share how the Church is walking alongside these communities, and how you can be part of this living mission of love.

Help Please

Last year we made a request for toilet paper for when Epping St. Vincent de Paul members visit local families who have asked for help. The response from the parish was wonderful and we are so grateful. We have been able to give a roll or 2 on each visit and the donations have lasted till now. We are about to run out again.

If you can help us by donating a packet of toilet paper it will be greatly appreciated.
