

Chevron Apprentice & Trainee Program

Want to be on Australia's energy frontline?
Kickstart your career with Chevron.

Partnering with MEGT, Chevron is looking for a new generation of apprentices and trainees to work on major energy projects across the Pilbara region in Western Australia. This is an exciting opportunity to be part of our country's evolving energy future.

2027 program positions available:

Industrial Electrical Instrumentation Apprenticeship
(4 years)

Maintenance Technician
(Mechanical Fitter)
Apprenticeship
(4 years)

Production Operator Traineeship
(2 years)

Get started today!

Applications open from 17th August to 4th September.

To apply:

Step 1. Complete application form via the QR code

Step 2. Email your current resume to chevron@megt.com.au

with your full name and position you're applying for in the subject line

Please note, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for interview. To be eligible for an apprenticeship or traineeship you must be an Australian Citizen, Permanent Resident or have full working rights.