

Hi.

You are invited to take part in 'The Big Draw' – a new creative arts project taking place at Wagga Wagga Art Gallery through Summer evenings.

The Big Draw is targeting creatives between 16 – 26 years old. It aims to bring together people like yourself to take part in creative workshops and events over Summer, and to become part of a creative leadership panel that will design, create and launch a further series of events involving visual arts, music, performance, spoken word and digital media.

Interested? What you need to do:

- Contact us: gray.maryanne@wagga.nsw.gov.au or call: 6926 9660
- Take part in our events planning meetings. Held at Wagga Wagga Art Gallery every 3 weeks (2 hrs duration), to discuss ideas, thoughts and plans for implementing local events with a panel of peers.
- Engage with your creative skills to help implement and drive these events over a 5-month period.
- Organise and participate in these events.

Benefits:

- You get to have a say, plan and make happen creative events for young people in Wagga Wagga.
- Enjoy working within a team of like-minded creatives
- Be mentored by Gallery creatives
- Learn how to transfer creative ideas and develop them into an event.
- Develop organisation and basic event management skills with support and guidance from Art Gallery staff.

We hope you can attend the launch of this innovative new project by participating in The Big Draw-Masterclass with Sydney artist Catherine O'Donnell.

Its Free!

Where: Wagga Wagga Art Gallery

When: Friday 6 November, 6pm-8pm

Visit our website waggaartgallery.com.au for more information on The Big Draw-Masterclass and register your attendance.

Maryanne Gray

Art Gallery Project Office

Image and artwork courtesy Hardenvale artists: Todd Fuller, Kellie O'Dempsey, Catherine O'Donnell, 2020.