TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

20/21 JUNE 2026 | Year A

Matthew 10:31 | ...there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

There are moments in life when fear can quietly take hold of our hearts. We worry about the future, the opinions of others, our health, our families, or whether we are capable of responding to what God asks of us. Into these fears, the Gospel offers a simple yet powerful message: "Do not be afraid."

Jesus speaks these words to His disciples as He prepares them for the challenges that lie ahead. He knows that following Him will not always be easy. There will be times of uncertainty, misunderstanding, and even rejection. Yet Jesus reminds them that they are never alone. The Father knows and cares for every detail of their lives. Not even a sparrow falls to the ground without God's knowledge, and each one of us is infinitely precious in His sight.

Jeremiah's experience echoes this same trust. Surrounded by opposition and disappointment, he places his confidence in the Lord, knowing that God remains faithful even in difficult times.

St Paul takes this one step further, reminding us that where sin and brokenness entered the world, God's grace proved even greater through Jesus Christ. Fear, failure, and weakness do not have the final word. God's love does.

As we continue our journey of discipleship, may we have the courage to trust in God's care, speak openly of our faith, and follow Christ with confidence and hope.

In Christ,

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR ALTAR SERVERS

We warmly congratulate our altar servers Laticia, Shevin, Violet, and Jayden Juan, who were admitted into St Stephen's Guild on Friday, 12 June 2026, at St Patrick's Cathedral.

This special occasion marks an important milestone in their ministry and commitment to serving at the altar. We are grateful for their dedication, faith, and willingness to serve our parish community.

May God continue to bless and guide them as they grow in their faith and ministry. We thank their families for their support and encouragement, and we pray that their example will inspire other young people to answer God's call to serve.

Congratulations, Laticia, Shevin, Violet, and Jayden Juan on this wonderful achievement!

Together, let's continue building a welcoming and joyful community where everyone belongs.

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: 'I hear so many disparaging me, "Terror from every side! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All those who used to be my friends watched for my downfall, "Perhaps he will be seduced into error. Then we will master him and take our revenge!"

But the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero; my opponents will stumble, mastered, confounded by their failure; everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs. But you, Lord of Hosts, you who probe with justice, who scrutinise the loins and heart, let me see the vengeance you will take on them, for I have committed my cause to you.

Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.'

Responsorial Psalm 68

Lord, in your great love, answer me.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of 'law-breaking', yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia! The Spirit of Truth will bear witness to me, says the Lord, and you also will be my witnesses. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the house-tops. 'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows. 'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'
