What's age got to do with it?

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day event

Date: Friday 14 June 2024

Council is recognising World Elder Abuse Awareness Day with a special event to raise awareness about elder abuse in our community. This event aims to shed light on the prevalence of elder abuse, educate attendees about its various forms, and empower individuals to take action.

Presentation - Dr Colleen Pearce AM, Public Advocate

Time: 10am to 11.30am

Colleen Pearce is Victoria's first female Public Advocate and has almost 40 years' experience managing community and health services in both the government and non-government sectors.

Workshop - Australian Human Rights Commission

Time: 12noon to 2pm

A workshop for community leaders and health professionals discussing ageism, conducted by Joanna Maxwell and Amanda Kunkler.

Location

Realm, 179 Maroondah Hwy Ringwood (opposite Ringwood Station)

How to register

Registrations are essential for each session and close on Wednesday 12 June. Attendance is free and refreshments are provided at both sessions.
