Dear STS Entrant,

This is an acknowledgement of your entry into the 2024 Science Talent Search.

Important tasks and information:

For ALL students across Metropolitan Melbourne and Country/Regional Victorian schools, please check that you have completed the following:

- ☐ STS Official Entry Face Sheet must be signed by the student(s), parent and teacher to certify your project. This MUST be submitted online to the school portal by your teacher.
- ☐ ALL entries in this year's Science Talent Search will be submitted electronically, even if you are attending Judging Day.
 - Please see attached, 'Submitting Projects and Judging'.
 - Please check the STS Handbook for section information.
 - Please provide your project files to your teacher by the date your teacher/school has set, so that your project can be submitted by the due date.

For students from a school in Metropolitan Melbourne, please note that you will be required to take your project to Methodist Ladies College, Kew on Saturday 3rd August for students who have submitted projects in the following categories: Working Models and Inventions, Computer Programs or Class Research Project.

For students from a Country/Regional/Jewish school, you will not be required to attend Judging Day.

For STS Resources, please check the following webpage here.

Please Note: Parents are not permitted to sit with their child during the judging process at Judging Day.
Parent waiting areas will be available.
Results will be sent to schools in Term 4, and you will be notified by your teacher.

We commend you on completing and submitting your project into this year's competition.

Yours sincerely,

Science Talent Search Management and Committee
