Tuesday
3 September

7pm to 8.30pm

Karralyka
Mines Road,
Ringwood East

A mother of three and former police officer, Kate has dedicated herself to making the world safer for children.

She will share simple tips, techniques and information including:

- How and why to have conversations with children about body safety.
- Clearing up myths that get in the way of children's safety.
- How to prepare for sleepovers and playdates.
- Tips on cyber safety.
- Easy solutions for parents, carers and educators in teaching children private parts protection.
- How to incorporate things that kids love and leave them feeling empowered and confident.

Please note: Unfortunately, children cannot be accommodated at this event.
