

Water for life

Water is important for life. Plants need water to grow. Humans need water to drink. Fish and other animals need water to live.

Plants

Plants need water to survive. Humans need water to survive. Fish need water to live.

Humans

Humans need water. Water is essential for the survival and growth of the human body. Water regulates body temperature. Water protects body tissue. Water helps excrete waste.

Animals

Some animals need water to stay cool. Animals such as birds, fish and many more use water as their habitat. Animals need water. Water is vital for animals to survive.

Animals need water to stay healthy.

