

Stage Makeup

Stage makeup is an important part of any performance. Whether you use it to create a character, or just to make your own features stand out, makeup is what makes you visible to the people all the way into the back row of the audience.

Use the faces below to practice your stage makeup skills! Grab your pens, pencils, or paints and make up each face according to the caption.

A ballerina

An old man

A rock star

A cat